

FBI Basic Crisis Negotiation Class

November 4 – November 8, 2024

Hosted by the Dothan Police Department
100 Public Safety Way, Dothan, AL 36303

The FBI 40 hour Basic Crisis Negotiation Course is a week long course that teaches the fundamentals of crisis negotiation and gives the student tools to approach any crisis situation regardless of their prior experience in these types of situations and whether they are a first responder, emergency dispatch operator, a tactical officer, commanding officer, or other law enforcement officer. Classroom teaching will be mixed with real world case study applications, audio and video incidents from around the country along with scenario training utilizing role players to engage, challenge, and expose each student to each function and role in which crisis negotiators are presented with during an actual crisis situation.

Class space is limited. To register, contact Lt. Scott Owens, Dothan Police Department, sowens@dothan.org, (334) 615-3924. You MUST attend the entire 40 hours to receive your certification.

Please note class times: 8a-6p on 11/4 and 11/5, 8a-5p 11/6 and 11/7, 8a-2p 11/8**

Ensure your registration request contains your name (as you want it to appear on your certificate), department, cell phone number, and email address.